

Public Meeting
for the
Joint Land Use Study for Dyess Air Force Base
Abilene City Hall, 555 Walnut St., 2nd Floor Council Chambers, Abilene, Texas
Wednesday, April 6, 2016 at 2:00 PM

Matrix Design Group - Celeste Werner, AICP, Project Manager and Mike Hrapla, Deputy Project Manager made the presentation to those in attendance.

The following city council was present: Councilmen Shane Price, Anthony Williams, Bruce Kreitler, Steve Savage, Jay Hardaway and Mayor Archibald.

The Joint Land Use Study (JLUS) is a cooperative planning effort conducted as a joint venture between an active military installation, surrounding jurisdictions, state and federal agencies, and other affected stakeholders to address compatibility around military installations. The Dyess Air Force Base (AFB) JLUS is funded by a grant from the Department of Defense Office of Economic Adjustment and contributions by the JLUS sponsor, City of Abilene, Texas. The JLUS effort can directly benefit both Dyess AFB and the surrounding region by:

Protecting the health and safety of surrounding residents and workers

Preserving long-term land use compatibility between Dyess AFB and the surrounding communities;

Promoting community planning that addresses compatibility issues

Enhancing cooperation between Dyess AFB and community officials; and

Integrating surrounding local jurisdiction growth policy plans with the installation's plans

No action was taken by the city council.
