

5/29/66

DECREE

WHEREAS, the Honorable Charles E. Erwin, Attorney at Law, has served the City of Abilene as Interim Judge of the Corporation Court from the 18th day of September, 1965, until the 15th day of May, 1966; and,

WHEREAS, the said Charles E. Erwin has maintained an exemplary devotion to duty as an administrator of justice, being ever mindful of the rights of both the accused and of society, and has earned the highest respect of his fellow members of the Bar, of the City Council of the City of Abilene, of the City employees with whom he has been associated, and of the Community as a whole; it is,

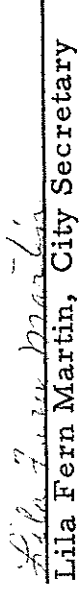

THEREFORE, now my order and decree that Charles E. Erwin be commended on behalf of the City Council and of the citizens of the City of Abilene for his OUTSTANDING performance of duties as Interim Judge of the Corporation Court.

It is further ordered and decreed that the original hereof be delivered to the Honorable Charles E. Erwin, and that a copy thereof be spread on the minutes of the Corporation Court of the City of Abilene, Texas, as a tribute to the outstanding services of Judge Charles E. Erwin.

Ralph M. Hooks, Mayor
City of Abilene, Texas

ATTEST:

Lila Fern Martin, City Secretary
